

Neville SMITH

Neville Smith is Regional Manager for Geon Print & Communication a position he has had, since the company he helped establish, Brebner Print in 1980, was sold. This business has retained a position as an industry leader in New Zealand, by recognising the value of investing in technology and staff to drive efficiency and quality.

Neville is keen to apply his learning's and experience to the HB Power Consumers' Trust. His passion for the local community has been seen in his company's sponsorship and support for Art Deco Weekend. He received a Civic Award for meritorious contribution to the Napier community.

The wider Hawke's Bay community has benefited from a range of successful charity fundraising events Neville has organised over the years. He has had governance experience in regional enterprises and has been the RNZ Navy Lieutenant Commander (Hon) for 7 years.

Neville supports Trust ownership of Unison Networks Ltd.
